DECISION ITEMS

Adoption of Minutes from March Board Meeting. Mark made a motion to approve the minutes, which was seconded by Bob and passed unanimously.

INFORMATION ITEMS

Update on Rev. Meghan's Meeting with Ministerial Fellowship Committee Executive Committee. The MFC accepted the Executive Committee recommendation of probation with conditions for three years. Rev. Meghan has until April 26 to decide whether to appeal the MFC decision.

Minister's Report. There will be a white supremacy sermon on April 30 with a reflection group afterwards for those who want to stay.

Financial Report. Glen reported that the kitchen budget is getting less negative, and is down to about $300. The Worship Committee is over-budget from paying for speakers. Buildings and grounds is over-budget from maintenance and water usage. Glen is working on an analysis of the denomination expenses for the next Finance Committee meeting. The minister's expenses are over-budget but the discretionary fund can be used to backfill at the end of the year.

Classroom Project Update. Clint reported that the doors are being installed and cabinets will be installed. There are separate keys for Sandy Hill and UUFSD. Chris Kolb should be done by the end of the week. The roofs are on, skylights installed. The YRUU room will be usable for toddlers, teens, and adults. Mark and Alison McLeod met today to strategize on storage. The bean bag chairs are going to be removed.

Pledge Drive Update. Glen reported that there are $265,000 in pledges so far, which is well below the goal of $333,000, but the projection is about $315,000. There is no firm end date yet. The pledge team is making calls to members who have not pledged yet. Next year it would be better to start the pledge drive in mid-February.

Leadership Development Event. Alisa reported the event went well. Christie Turner's stories especially were powerful, and there have been requests to record them.

Design Review Committee. Rev. Meghan reported that the Committee has had some challenges making decisions (chalice, hose reels, trash cans). See action item above.

Volunteer Appreciation Day. A reminder was provided that this event, organized by Adrienne is being held this Saturday from 2-5.

ITEMS FOR THOUGHTFUL DISCUSSION

Social Justice & Action Committee. Irv Himelblau led the discussion. The Committee is divided into numerous task forces, including environmental justice, immigration reform, mental health, community resource center, SD food bank, back to school backpacks, gun violence prevention, generosity Sunday, Casas de Luz, and racial justice.

The Committee leads the following efforts:

- UUFSD's turn at the St. James homeless shelter. There will be no homeless shelter this year at St. James because they are remodeling.
- Works on partnerships with other organizations to avoid duplicating efforts.
- Annual 30 Days of Love campaign.
- Mental Health month in May.
- Backpack program last year over 100 backpacks filled with supplies were donated to the Encinitas school system and Community Resource Center, as well as the homeless teen program in Oceanside.
- Beloved Conversations is spearheaded by members of the racial justice task force.
- Refugee program was introduced and approved at the last meeting

Strengths of Committee:

 Has money set aside for special projects, as Liv's mediation group proceeds go to the Committee

- Has good participation with about 30 people attending quarterly meetings
- Averaging about $1000 in donations for Generosity Sundays

Challenges for Committee:

- The task forces are lacking interconnection. It is difficult to get them to partner on projects.
- Administrative challenge on who gets to vote at meetings. There is a shifting attendance at meetings, so whoever shows up at a given meeting has been allowed to vote.
 - O Some ideas: could have board made up of chair of each task force, and/or could suggest that task forces pair up for social events or projects.

Needs:

- Policy may be helpful to provide a general outline of how things should work
- Website update would be helpful to disseminate information about ongoing projects
- Succession planning
- RE involvement is desired but has been difficult to develop

The President declared the meeting adjourned at 9:23 pm. The next scheduled Board meeting is on Tuesday, May 16, from 7:00 to 9:00 pm at Rev. Meghan's office.

Respectfully submitted, Heather Stroud, Secretary

Report to the Board Rev. Meghan Cefalu April 2017

Dear members of the UUFSD Board,

Energy is high at the fellowship. :) Last weekend 90 or so members and friends enjoyed a great time together at our annual retreat at Camp de Benneville Pines. And this last weekend we had a successful and full weekend of activities at the Fellowship. Our first ever Board-hosted leadership development event on Friday and Saturday seemed to be a great success. People said they really appreciated it and they learned a lot. I did too! Thank you to all of you who worked to make it a success.

The Seder on Saturday evening was well attended (50?) and was fun for me to lead along with Michael Scott and Pamela Parker. It was a tremendous effort by a handful of volunteers - notably Debbie Ploeser who worked alone and late to clean up and prepare the kitchen afterwards for Easter Sunday. Easter was also well attended, and a festive and fun day at the fellowship.

The people of color organization in the UUA (Black Lives of UU) has issued a denomination-wide invitation to all congregations to hold a "White Supremacy Teach-In". I've chosen to participate and our service on April 30 will be focused on the topic followed an opportunity for people to reflect on the ideas further after the service.

I will be making a decision this week regarding my response to the UUA Ministerial Fellowship Committee's letter to me. I'll discuss more about this with you in person at our meeting.

I attended the Interfaith San Dieguito Minister's Association meeting on April 5th For the first time. They've asked me to offer a prayer at the Encinitas Mayor's prayer breakfast on May 4th. :)

I am co-teaching the Serving with Grace class again on Wednesdays with Nancy Harmon. We have a good sized class (10) and after the first class people seemed to be very engaged and enthusiastic about the new way of thinking of volunteer work at the fellowship.

I appreciate the care, thoughtfulness and dedication you all bring to your Board roles.

In gratitude and in fellowship, Rev. Meghan

THE BOARD SHOULD KNOW

Alana Schuler just sent out training "manuals" to all ushers with explicit instructions on how to fill out the donation envelopes (including the service attendance). Hopefully, that will improve the "hit and miss" on the counts in the future.

Adrienne's Report

Hi and happy spring! This is been a very busy and productive month for many of us! At the end of March we recognized 13 new members during our second service. (4 additional members were unable to attend)

Rev Meghan and I tried a couple new things and they seem to go well resulting in a meaningful event. Going forward- We are scheduling recognitions at least three times per year.

Camp De Benneville family camp was a success and many new members and sustaining members attended for the first time. The volunteers worked very hard before and during the weekend.

It's auction time! I'm helping Patricia Cofre Stone (our amazing auction chair) with volunteers and with PR for the auction. It's always a labor of love I'm with much work and communication between committees and volunteers.

The Volunteer Appreciation event is finally here! This Saturday we are having a barbecue with live music and event to celebrate the hard work our volunteers do. We have 50 RSVPs. Yay!

For those who could not attend this time we will have another event in the fall. I will aim to schedule large recognition events three times a year- different styles and times to appeal to our various member volunteers. I'd love to hear what event/activity/recognition would be special to YOU. That would help me/us plan for future events. I've gathered data from many leaders at the fellowship so that I could create some recognition and thank you's. The volunteers in attendance will be recognized. There will also be some things on display showing others how much hard work is put into our fellowship. I hope those of you who are in town can make it! (Please RSVP by Thursday)

The Young Adult group is flourishing! They are welcoming our new members and have had a couple more social events and are exploring service projects. Additionally- There is some ground work being made on an "intergen" group that will hopefully gain traction. This group will encourage conversations between younger members middle aged members and older adult members. It's already a mix of our newer UUs and UUs with decades of UU history.

Much more- email or call me anytime for more updates! Adrienne
