Racial Justice Task Force Discussion on Netflix Series
“When They See Us”
Today, August 16th at 5:00pm

When They See Us tells the story of the Central Park Five, a group of Black and Latino boys who were wrongfully accused of sexually assaulting a white woman jogger in Central Park in 1989. The series provides a provocative and emotional look into our justice system and the need to address the biases and corruption plaguing police departments and courts. The series is comprised of four episodes and can be found on Netflix. Please watch the episodes prior to the discussion groups.

The third and fourth episodes will be discussed on August 16 at 5:00pm

Donate NOW to Camp de Benneville Pines Emergency Fund

Someone has put up $5,000 in matching funds for all donations made in August. Let's make sure it gets all used up.

Camp has had no income since mid-March when Covid-19 reared its ugly head. We must keep the camp going until campers feel safe to return once again. We used up our reserves and PPP funds, so now it is up to us!

We are exploring grants and other loans: Ideas welcome (betsvgilpin01@gmail.com)! To donate go to www.uucamp.org and click on the Donate button in the upper right corner. Thank you!

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Fellowship Covenant

“May love be the spirit of this congregation;
May the quest for truth be its sacrament.

To seek knowledge in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship.
This is our Covenant.”
