Monday Evening Book Club Visits Hawai'i
September 14th, 6:30-8:00pm, via Zoom

Kawai Strong Washburn's debut novel, Sharks in the Time of Saviors uses the Hawaiian idea of aumakua, a protector who returns in animal form to save their family, to show us the rich and varied culture of the Big Island of Hawai'i. A boy saved by sharks seems to have puzzling new abilities, which cause his family to question their legacy and find the meaning of heritage.

Voter Education Ballot "PROP TALK" on Zoom
Sunday, October 11th at 2:30 pm

Indivisible Patriots invite you to a voter education event to learn about the 12 statewide propositions that will appear on this November's ballot.

You may have already decided who you are going to vote for in the most publicized offices such as president, senator, etc. But, have you sorted through the details of the 12 statewide propositions? A representative from the Speaker's Bureau of the nonpartisan League of Women Voters will lead a nonpartisan voter education "Prop Talk" to explain each of the 12 statewide propositions, (E.g., Who supports the proposition? Who opposes the opposition? What is the fiscal effect of the proposition? What does a "yes" or "no" vote on the proposition mean?)

For Zoom link, please RSVP to indivisible@uufsd.org
