

Continuing the Conversation on Racial Justice
Sunday, September 27th, 11:40am-12:40pm
Breakout sessions after the Service

Please stay after the coffee hour to further our exploration of racism in this moment in time. We will reflect on the service and recent national events as well as share our deeper understandings of 'whiteness' and race in our culture.

Questions, contact Julia Darling at jvdarling@roadrunner.com

Generosity Sunday, September 27th: Voices of Our City Choir

Voices of Our City Choir was begun in 2016. It was created as a way to serve the needs of the homeless population of San Diego through the healing power of music and offering a sense of community. The choir also helps to attract and retain people in need of services and provides resources to enhance their opportunity to access necessary services. There are currently about 250 active choir members, 2/3 of whom are either homeless or housing insecure.

Funds raised from our Generosity Sunday donations will be used to purchase music books, headphones and tablets. We encourage you to be generous to this worthy organization and check out their America's Got Talent performance on YouTube at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DvSRZNtnMQk>

"Me and White Supremacy" Book Groups
Sunday, October 4th, 4:00-5:30pm via Zoom

Please join the Racial Justice Task Force as we read and have a series of discussions about "Me and White Supremacy" by Layla F. Saad.

"Me and White Supremacy" leads readers through a journey of understanding their white privilege and participation in white supremacy, so that they can stop (often unconsciously) inflicting damage on Black, Indigenous and People of Color, and in turn, help other white people do better, too. "

Our first meeting will be on Sunday, October 4th at 4pm. Please read the introduction and chapters 1 and 2 before our first meeting.

Voter Education Ballot "Prop Talk" on Zoom
Sunday, October 11th at 2:30 pm

Indivisible Patriots invite you to a voter education event to learn about the 12 statewide propositions that will appear on this November's ballot.

You may have already decided who you are going to vote for in the most publicized offices such as president, senator, etc. But, have you sorted through the details of the 12 statewide propositions? A representative from the Speaker's Bureau of the nonpartisan League of Women Voters will lead a nonpartisan voter education "Prop Talk" to explain each of the 12 statewide propositions, (E.g., Who supports the proposition? Who opposes the opposition? What is the fiscal effect of the proposition? What does a "yes" or "no" vote on the proposition mean?)

Land Acknowledgement

On behalf of UUFSU, I take a moment to acknowledge the land on which we stand today as the traditional home of the Kumeyaay people, and of all tribes and bands within the Kumeyaay nation. It holds to our Principles to honor the history and work in the present and future with our Native neighbors.

Chalice Lighting

Centering Hymn #123 Spirit of Life

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Fellowship Covenant

“May love be the spirit of this congregation;
May the quest for truth be its sacrament.
And service be its prayer;
To dwell together in peace,
To seek knowledge in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship.
This is our Covenant.”

Sharing for All Ages Alison A.L.G. McLeod

Closing Hymn #1008 When Our Heart is in a Holy Place

Extinguishing the Chalice

“We extinguish this flame
but not the light of truth,
the warmth of community,
or the fire of commitment.
These we carry in our hearts
until we are together again.”

Benediction
