

"Me and White Supremacy" Book Groups
Sunday, October 4th, 4:00-5:30pm via Zoom

Please join the Racial Justice Task Force as we read and have a series of discussions about "Me and White Supremacy" by Layla F. Saad.

"Me and White Supremacy" leads readers through a journey of understanding their white privilege and participation in white supremacy, so that they can stop (often unconsciously) inflicting damage on Black, Indigenous and People of Color, and in turn, help other white people do better, too. "

Our first meeting will be today, Sunday, October 4th at 4pm.

Please read the introduction ("Part 1") and chapters 1 and 2 ("Day 1: You and White Privilege" and "Day 2: You and White Fragility") before our first meeting.

"Voter Education Ballot "Prop Talk" on Zoom
Sunday, October 11th at 2:30 pm

Indivisible Patriots invite you to a voter education event to learn about the 12 statewide propositions that will appear on this November's ballot.

You may have already decided who you are going to vote for in the most publicized offices such as president, senator, etc. But, have you sorted through the details of the 12 statewide propositions? A representative from the Speaker's Bureau of the nonpartisan League of Women Voters will lead a nonpartisan voter education "Prop Talk" to explain each of the 12 statewide propositions, (E.g., Who supports the proposition? Who opposes the proposition? What is the fiscal effect of the proposition? What does a "yes" or "no" vote on the proposition mean?)

For Zoom link, please RSVP to indivisible@uufsd.org

October's Second Monday Book Club
Monday, October 12th, 6:30-8:30pm via UUFSD Zoom

On October 12th, at 6:30pm, via Zoom, we will discuss the 1977 novel The Song of Solomon by Toni Morrison.

The book won the National Book Critics Circle Award for its family saga featuring Macon "Milkman" Dead III, and conservative, mostly white, parents have tried to keep their children from reading it ever since.

Centering Hymn #123 Spirit of Life

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Fellowship Covenant

“May love be the spirit of this congregation;
May the quest for truth be its sacrament.
And service be its prayer;
To dwell together in peace,
To seek knowledge in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship.
This is our Covenant.”

Extinguishing the Chalice

“We extinguish this flame
but not the light of truth,
the warmth of community,
or the fire of commitment.
These we carry in our hearts
until we are together again.”
