

This Sunday, October 25th is Generosity Sunday
Our Recipient is Camp de Benneville Pines

With the Covid pandemic and the El Dorado fire Camp is in need of FUNDS! Watch this video for more information re Covid. <https://uu.camp/2020-summer-camp/>

The video was made before the fire. Luckily the fire did not damage any buildings but there is extensive erosion control needed which will cost money. A generous donor is offering to match any contributions made until the end of the year. If you won't be at the Zoom service, please donate anyway, using the usual means posted every Sunday.

50 Mile "Race for Race: Run for Justice Protest"
Sunday, November 1st

Encinitas4Equality (E4E) is hosting the 50 Mile "Race for Race: Run for Justice Protest" on November 1st. Alone or in groups, bike, run, walk!

Contact Mlali Woods for more information. Website: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/50-mile-race-for-race-tickets-124569780567>

It is the mission of Encinitas4Equality to educate, organize and mobilize our community to work in allyship with our Black neighbors in Encinitas and neighboring communities.

UUFSD Annual Art Fair - Online
November 7th-14th

Here is your chance to do your holiday shopping without ever stepping a foot into a store. We have 11 artists exhibiting their work for sale. Items include jewelry, ceramics, photography, other visual art, knitted items, and stained glass. We will post the link to the program that displays the work for purchase on the evening of November 6th.

2nd Monday Book Club via UUFSD Zoom
November 9th, 6:30-8:30pm

Janesville, Wisconsin: the nation's oldest operating General Motors plant shut down two days before Christmas of 2008. Goldstein's reporting takes the reader deep into the lives of autoworkers, educators, bankers, politicians, and job re-trainers to show why it's so hard in the twenty-first century to recreate a healthy, prosperous working class.

Janesville: An American Story (2017) by Amy Goldstein will be discussed on November 9th at 6:30pm. We hope to see you over Zoom!

Land Acknowledgement

On behalf of UUFSD, I take a moment to acknowledge the land on which we stand today as the traditional home of the Kumeyaay people, and of all tribes and bands within the Kumeyaay nation. It holds to our Principles to honor the history and work in the present and future with our Native neighbors.

Chalice Lighting

Centering Hymn #123 Spirit of Life

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Fellowship Covenant

“May love be the spirit of this congregation;
May the quest for truth be its sacrament.
And service be its prayer;
To dwell together in peace,
To seek knowledge in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship.
This is our Covenant.”

Story for All Ages

Joys and Sorrows

Meditation on Breathing Hymn #1009

“When I breathe in, I breath in peace.
When I breathe out, I breathe out love.”
