

Transgender Day of Remembrance Service
Friday, November 20th at 7:00pm

On Friday, November 20th, at 7:00pm in the evening we will hold a service for the annual Transgender Day of Remembrance.

Every year we use this evening to honor all the transgendered people who have been killed for being who they are. We will be in a Zoom room instead of in person, and we can still remember and honor them. Have a candle nearby to light. Please use the link below to join us in this sacred space of remembrance.

Thanksgiving Dinner is ON!
Thursday, November 26th
at 1:30pm via Zoom

Traditionally we gather at the Fellowship with family and friends. This year we will not be able to visit and eat. It will be hard this year to cook and eat alone or not with family. So, I do not want anyone to miss Dinner. We will meet virtually and eat.

I am preparing Turkey dinner in the kitchen at the Fellowship. Turkey and all the trimmings, dressing, gravy, different kinds of potatoes, cranberry sauce, bread, and green beans, with dessert of course will be served in take out form. I will prepare plates of food and dessert, place them in bags to be delivered or picked up.

Meals may be picked up beginning at Noon on Thanksgiving Day but please sign up no later than November 23rd with how many meals you would like prepared and if you want delivery or pick up. I need to know how many to shop and cook for.

Please go to the website or check the newsletter for the link to sign up.

Then we can ZOOM at 1:30pm, visit and eat together and be thankful that we can see each other this way, at least. (The link will be posted in the UUFSD Newsletter on Friday, November 20th.)

I will need several people to help deliver the food. If you can help, please email me.

Land Acknowledgement

On behalf of UUFSU, I take a moment to acknowledge the land on which we stand today as the traditional home of the Kumeyaay people, and of all of the 18 tribes and bands within the Kumeyaay nation here in San Diego County. It holds to our Principles, especially the 8th Principle, journeying towards spiritual wholeness by working to build a diverse multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and other oppressions in ourselves and our institutions. To honor the history and acknowledge the work and be intentional about dismantling those Colonial systems in the present and future with our Native neighbors will open our hearts and transform us to a congregation of action. Let us address these systems of oppression by beginning with this land acknowledgement. Amen.

Centering Hymn #123 Spirit of Life/#30 Fuente de Amor

sung by Jill Ballard and Marshall Voit, played by Katie Klaerich

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí.
Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
Sopla al volar, sube en la mar,
Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida.
Arrágame, libérame,
Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.

Fellowship Covenant

May the quest for truth be its sacrament.
And service be its prayer;

To seek knowledge in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship.
This is our Covenant.”

UUFSU is a welcoming congregation

Ingathering Ceremony for New Members of UUFSD

MINISTER:

Out of their hopes and dreams, the People fashion a community to share in love, service and witness. We come together to grow our hearts, open our minds and turn love into justice. In Unitarianism Universalism, membership is a matter of individual and personal choice, affirming our commitment to live by ethical principles and the callings of our deepest selves. Today, we welcome into this Fellowship these new members, who have chosen to make a commitment to this congregation by signing our Membership Book.

ALL:

We welcome all people of good will and all in need. We give life to our intentions by supporting each other in times of joy and sorrow; encouraging spiritual exploration and personal growth; providing education and experiential workshops and classes for all ages in which our values are explored; by serving the community in an effort to effect change for the better. We do these things in accordance with Unitarian Universalist principles and welcome into membership all who share these values.

REPRESENTATIVE OF THE CONGREGATION (the board president):

On behalf of the members of the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of San Dieguito, I welcome you into our religious community.

ALISON:

Some of our new members also bring their children and teenagers into our community. I ask all the children and teens of the fellowship to rise in body or spirit. Please continue to welcome Austin and Dylan Fry, Hannah, Milo, and Juno Reed-Elliott, and Holland and Cannon Huber into your fellowship of play, growth, learning and love. If you will do this, say loud and clear, "We will!"

CHILDREN AND TEENS:

We will!

NEW MEMBERS:

We are ready to join this community of love and service. We bring our talent and enthusiasm as well as our shortcomings and questions. We ask that you reach out to us in our efforts to become full participants in the life of this faithful congregation.

CONGREGATION:

We are honored that you have chosen to join us. May we grow together as a community of open minds and caring hearts.

MINISTER:

Affirming one another in love, let us covenant together this day, repeating our Fellowship Covenant:

ALL: May love be the spirit of this congregation,
May the quest for truth be its sacrament
And service be its prayer.
To dwell together in peace,
To seek truth in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship. This is our covenant.
