Greeting & Announcements

Call to Worship

Land Acknowledgement

As a UU congregation, we are guided by the principles of our faith, including the 8th Principle, which calls on us to take action to dismantle racism in ourselves and our institutions in order to build a diverse multiracial Beloved Community.

To that end, we take a moment to acknowledge the land on which we stand today as the traditional home of the Luiseño and Kumeyaay people, including all of the 18 tribes and bands within the Kumeyaay nation here in San Diego County.

We honor their history, and commit to dismantling the Colonial systems that act as barriers to justice for Indigenous people both in the present and for the future. May that vision inspire us to open our hearts and transform us to a congregation of action. Amen.

Centering Hymn and Covenant #123 Spirit of Life/#30 Fuente de Amor

sung by Jill Ballard, Marshall Voit, played by Katie Klaerich

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí.
Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
Sopla al volar, sube en el mar,
Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida.
Arráigame, libérame,
Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.

Fellowship Covenant

“May love be the spirit of this congregation;
May the quest for truth be its sacrament.
And service be its prayer;
To dwell together in peace,
To seek knowledge in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship.
This is our Covenant.”

Joys and Sorrows (Sung response)

“Comfort me, comfort me, comfort me, oh my soul.” (2x)
