

Introduction to UUFSD Endowment
Sunday, January 24th at 11:15am via Zoom

Please join us as we host a half-hour Zoom session at 11:15am immediately following the service on January 24th to explain the UUFSD Endowment, particularly how members and committees may apply for Endowment grants beginning immediately. Now that our Endowment has exceeded $100,000, we will make our first grants later this year. Grant proposals may be for any idea consistent with UU values, such as social justice, outreach, or special projects. The session will cover the Endowment's purpose, how it's invested, how to apply for grants, and how to help it grow.

2nd Monday Book Clubs
February 8th at 6:30pm via Zoom

We're discussing a book by a classic author, The Log from the Sea of Cortez by John Steinbeck (1951). Marine biologist Ed Ricketts and the author collect marine specimens in the Gulf of California in the spring of 1940. The friendship between the two men was important in Steinbeck's writing as well as in his life. It is said that Steinbeck had a lot to say, and Ricketts made listening an art. But Ricketts was also a mentor to Steinbeck.

Centering Hymn and Covenant

#30 Fuente de Amor / #123 Spirit of Life

sung by Jill Ballard, Marshall Voit, played by Katie Klaerich

Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí.
Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
Sopla al volar, sube en el mar,
Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida.
Arráigame, libérame,
Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Fellowship Covenant

“May love be the spirit of this congregation;
May the quest for truth be its sacrament.
And service be its prayer;
To dwell together in peace,
To seek knowledge in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship.
This is our Covenant.”
