

Dear Visitor,

We are glad you are visiting and invite you to return often. Please join us for refreshments in the Core Area after service—and, while you're there, fill out a Visitor Card at the membership table. This will allow us to keep you in the loop on the wide array of spiritual, volunteer, musical, and cultural events UUFSD is host to. Unitarian Universalism is not based on creed, but on the following seven principles:

The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
Acceptance of one another and encouragement of spiritual growth;
A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
The right of conscience and the use of democratic process;
The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
Respect for the interdependent web of all existence.

Religious Education (RE) classes for youth and children address those values. Childcare for children under three is provided. Newcomer Orientation is held quarterly for those seeking a deeper understanding of Fellowship and who wish to learn about the privileges and responsibilities of membership. Contact us to learn more. Services vary weekly; please visit again!

Centering Hymn and Covenant

#30 Fuente de Amor / #123 Spirit of Life

words and music by Carolyn McDade

Spanish lyrics by Ervin Barrios

Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí.
Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
Sopla al volar, sube en el mar,
Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida.
Arráigame, libérame,
Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Fellowship Covenant

“May love be the spirit of this congregation;
May the quest for truth be its sacrament.
And service be its prayer;
To dwell together in peace,
To seek knowledge in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship.
This is our Covenant.”

Immediately following today’s service, we will have a
Congregational meeting via Zoom to vote on the adoption of the 8th
Principle. We ask that all members please join us for this important vote.

UUFSD is a welcoming congregation

Reconvened Congregational Meeting
TODAY, Sunday, June 27th from 2:00-4:00pm via Zoom

The All Congregational Meeting will reconvene today at 2:00 pm via Zoom.

The UUFSD Board of Directors wants to remind all voting members that we will be reconvening the All Congregational Meeting on Sunday, June 27th at 2:00 pm via Zoom. This is to allow all voting members attending the onsite reopening service ample time to return home to access Zoom.

You can find the list of items to be voted on in last Friday's newsletter.

Because we will be using the Zoom polling function for counting the vote, please have each voting member use a separate device, if possible. Where a shared device is the only option, we will have a workaround so that all votes will be properly counted.

The Zoom information for the 2:00 pm. meeting is below:

Take Action on Climate!
Wednesday, July 7th at 4:00pm on Zoom

There is now a UUFSD social action group to address climate change.

Its mandate is to put these beliefs front and center:

- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part, and
- We do not inherit the earth from our ancestors; we borrow it from our children.

Run-away climate change is almost upon us. As Unitarian Universalists, we must act. The first meeting will be Wednesday, July 7, at 4:00 pm on Zoom.

For more information, email Sarah Miller at ClimateAction@uufsd.org

UUFSD Orientation Class
Wednesday, July 14th at 7:00pm on Zoom

Attention Visitors: We will be holding a UUFSD Orientation Class on Zoom, Wednesday, July 14, 2021 at 7:00-8:30pm.

This class gives you a good picture of how we organize ourselves at UUFSD and the many activities we offer. It also provides an opportunity to share your spiritual journey thus far and meet some friendly members. Attendance does not obligate you to become a member.

If you wish to attend, please send an email to office@uufsd.org. We will need your email to send you the Zoom invitation.

“Home” by Phillip Phillips

Hold on, to me as we go
As we roll down this unfamiliar road
And although this wave is stringing us along
Just know you're not alone
'Cause we're going to make this place our home

Settle down, it'll all be clear
Don't pay no mind to the demons
They fill you with fear
The trouble it might drag you down
If you get lost, you can always be found

Just know you're not alone
'Cause we're going to make this place our home

Settle down, it'll all be clear
Don't pay no mind to the demons
They fill you with fear
The trouble it might drag you down
If you get lost, you can always be found

Just know you're not alone
'Cause we're going to make this place our home

Bridging Ceremony Litany

Minister: You who are bridging today have grown beyond what you once were. With each new day and each new experience, you learn more about yourself, your world, and your faith. Your past will serve you well on your journey. We gather today to honor you at this transformative time in your lives.

YRUU: We honor the gifts you have brought the youth community and the sorrow we feel at this parting. For your gifts of fellowship and joy, and for memories we will always cherish, we give you thanks. As we give you over to your future, we give you our blessing, and we pledge to you our support as you grow into it. We honor you at this transformative time.

Crossing the Symbolic Bridge

(Bridgers Cross Over)

Young Adults: We honor the gifts you bring to the young adult community and the joy we feel at this welcoming. We are grateful for your individuality, and for the hope you bring and the anxieties you share. We bless you now, as you grow into who you are, and we pledge to you our support as you reach for your dreams. May you find among us friendship and support, yearning and joy. We honor you at this transformative time.

Congregation: We honor the life you bring to our community and the ways in which you help us to grow. We bless you now, as you take your place beside us, and we pledge to you our support as you seek your way on your own path. May you find among us allies and friends, that you may grow in mind and body and spirit. We honor you at this transformative time.

All: Today we come together to recognize the transition from youth to young adulthood. It is a blessing to share together the sorrow of leaving the past, as well as the excitement of embracing the future. We pledge to one another: to be in community, fully and openly, with all the blessings and responsibilities such an effort brings, and to move together into the future of this, our Unitarian Universalist faith. We honor this transformative time in our lives.

Graduating Seniors: We welcome your blessing, and we move forward in hope.

“Circle Game” by Joni Mitchell

Yesterday a child came out to wonder
Caught a dragonfly inside a jar
Fearful when the sky was full of thunder
And tearful at the falling of a star
Then the child moved ten times round the seasons
Skated over ten clear frozen streams
Words like, when you're older, must appease him
And promises of someday make his dreams
And the seasons they go round and round
And the painted ponies go up and dawn
Were captive on the carousel of time
We can't return we can only look behind
From where we came
And go round and round and round
In the circle game.

Sixteen springs and sixteen summers gone now
Cartwheels turn to car wheels thru the town
And they tell him,
Take your time, it won't be long now
Till you drag your feet to slow the circles down
And the seasons they go round and round
And the painted ponies go up and dawn
Were captive on the carousel of time
We can't return we can only look behind
From where we came
And go round and round and round
In the circle game

So the years spin by and now the boy is twenty
Though his dreams have lost some grandeur
Coming true
There'll be new dreams, maybe better dreams and plenty
Before the last revolving year is through.
And the seasons they go round and round
And the painted ponies go up and dawn
Were captive on the carousel of time
We can't return, we can only look behind
From where we came
And go round and round and round
In the circle game
