Our Indigenous Neighbors
Wednesday, September 8th, 7:00-9:00pm

Has the Land Acknowledgement triggered your interest in learning more about the Kumeyaay, Luiseno, and Cupeno Peoples with whom we share our beautiful home? If so, please come to a movie night in Palmer Library on September 8th from 7-9 pm. We will watch two videos in which individuals from local tribes describe some of their views, history and practices. One video won an Emmy and the other was a runner-up. They do a good job of capturing the spirit of the people and the land.

This could kick-off a two or three session study group where we can read and learn together. Or it can just be a movie night to whet your interest. We also have some ideas for field trips or volunteerism, depending on the direction we take. We believe it's our job to educate ourselves before jumping in. Please RSVP by emailing Mary Anne Trause (trause@comcast.net).

Alison has provided the following link to a class on the Kumeyaay which will begin soon sponsored by the Kumeyaay Community College on Thursday nights on Zoom. Check it out if that appeals to you.

Second Monday Book Club
August 9th, 6:30 - 8:00pm

We will be discussing the 2020 novel, Interior Chinatown by Charles Yu.

Willis Wu is used to acting roles like Generic Asian Man or Disgraced Son. Does he have a chance at being Kung Fu Guy? Entertaining and inventive, this story takes us into Hollywood's interpretation of Chinatown, an immigrant family's history, and the uncertain road of assimilation. We are again meeting in the Palmer Library at UUFSD.

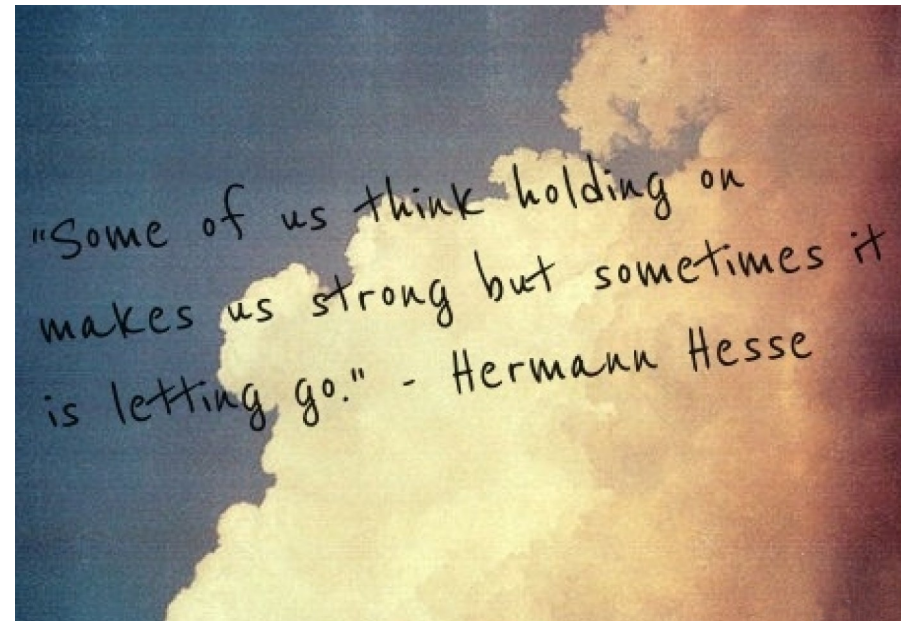

If you have questions, please call or text Cathy Leach-Phillips at 650 224-1974 or email bookclub@uufsd.org.

#30 Fuente de Amor / #123 Spirit of Life

words and music by Carolyn McDade
Spanish lyrics by Ervin Barrios

Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí.
Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
Sopla al volar, sube en el mar,
Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida.
Arráigame, libérame,
Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Fellowship Covenant

“May love be the spirit of this congregation;
May the quest for truth be its sacrament.
And service be its prayer;
To dwell together in peace,
To seek knowledge in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship.
This is our Covenant.”

Intergenerational Sharing “Golden Threads”

Children’s Recessional Hymn #414 (sing 2x as children leave service)

“As we leave this friendly place, love gives light to every face
May the kindness which we learn, light our hearts ‘til we return”.

These we carry in our hearts until we are together again.”
