Our Indigenous Neighbors - Change in Format! Wednesday, September 8th, 7:00-9:00pm

Calling all life-long learners who want to discover more about the Kumeyaay, Luiseno, and Cupeno Peoples with whom we share our beautiful home.

We still plan a movie night on September 8th from 7-9 pm, but from the comfort of your home. Facilitated by Alison, our religious education guru, we will watch and discuss an Emmy-award-winning video together on Zoom. In it, individuals from local tribes describe some of their views, history and practices. We are initially planning a three-session series (9/8, 9/22 and 10/6) where we can read and learn together. Or you can just check out the first movie to gauge your interest. We also have some ideas for field trips or volunteerism, depending on the direction we take. We believe it's our job to educate ourselves as informed citizens and compassionate allies before jumping in.

Please RSVP by emailing Mary Anne Trause (trause@comcast.net).

Nature and Resiliency

Earth Air Fire Water: Connecting to a deeper self.
A young woman artist—living alone in the desert without electricity and running water— connects to nature and to a deeper self.
Empower yourself through Linda's story.

Centering Hymn and Covenant

#30 Fuente de Amor / #123 Spirit of Life

Words and music by Carolyn McDade
Spanish lyrics by Ervin Barrios

Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí.
Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
Sopla al volar, sube en el mar,
Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida.
Arráigame, libérame,
Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Fellowship Covenant

“May love be the spirit of this congregation;
May the quest for truth be its sacrament.
And service be its prayer;
To dwell together in peace,
To seek knowledge in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship.
This is our Covenant.”
