The Sacred Arts of Tibet Tour - White Tara Mandala
December 1st-5th in Founders Hall

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of San Dieguito, will host the visiting monks of Gaden Shartse Norling Monastery who are guided by the Dalai Lama.

The Sacred Arts of Tibet Tour seeks to share the traditional spiritual arts of Tibet with the world through the construction of sand mandalas, lectures and other sacred rituals. The monks will construct a White Tara mandala, a core practice of the Tibetan Buddhist tradition, throughout their stay. At the outer level, the mandala represents the world in divine form, and at the inner level it represents a map that the ordinary human mind can follow to achieve enlightenment. White Tara is considered the Mother of All Buddhas. She represents the energies of graceful power, compassion, purity, and long life. The White Tara empowerment is meant to establish a close relationship between the recipient and these energies.

Her mandala will be ritually dismantled upon completion, representing the Buddhist belief in the transitory nature of material life.

Proof of vaccination and mask wearing will be required.

Kumeyaay Study Group
December 8th, 7:00pm-8:30pm via Zoom

The Kumeyaay Study Group will meet one more time this year, then decide on plans for 2022. The Zoom meeting date will be Wednesday December 8, 2021. You are welcome to come even if you have not yet attended. A couple of weeks ago Alison presented information on gaming, including some videos. The discussion suggested the session altered many of our views about Indian gaming.

Future possible topics include reparations, climate change, PBS movies, and evolving into a book group with titles like An Indigenous Peoples' History of the United States.

Do join us and voice your preferences! We have much to learn. Contact Mary Anne Trause at trause@comcast.net if you are new and would like to join.

Centering Hymn and Covenant
#30 Fuente de Amor / #123 Spirit of Life
Words and music by Carolyn McDade
Spanish lyrics by Ervin Barrios

Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí.
Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
Sopla al volar, sube en el mar,
Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida.
Arráigame, libérame,
Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Fellowship Covenant

“May love be the spirit of this congregation;
May the quest for truth be its sacrament.
And service be its prayer;
To dwell together in peace,
To seek knowledge in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship.
This is our Covenant.”
