

Office Closed Monday

NOTE: The UUFSD Office will be closed on Monday, February 21st. We will return calls and emails on Tuesday, February 22nd.

Covid Protocol Update

In response to the changing conditions surrounding Covid, the Board is once again updating our onsite protocols.

Effective immediately, masks will no longer be required when we are outdoors at UUFSD, and we will once again be able to offer drinks and refreshments in our outdoor core area during coffee hour.

In cases of rain or inclement weather, the service will be held in Founders' Hall. Indoors, masks will continue to be required for all 2 years and older until our Covid risk level decreases enough to be within the "High" range according to Covid Act Now data. Daily cases/100k have been dropping sharply and San Diego County now falls in the "Very High" range (25 - 75 cases/100k).

We will continue to require proof of being fully vaccinated for all 5 years and older. Religious Education classes will continue to be held outdoors.

What Now? Conversations

The "What Now? Conversations" have begun and we encourage all active participants in our UUFSD community (members, pledging friends, engaged friends) to sign up!

Mardi Gras/Shrove Tuesday/Pancake Supper Tuesday, March 1st, 6:00-8:00pm - UUFSD Patio/Core Area

It Is A Family Event! Everyone Come, Eat, Get Some Beads and a Mask

The origins of Mardi Gras can be traced to medieval Europe. Mardi Gras is French for "Fat Tuesday", reflecting the practice of the last night of eating rich, fatty foods before the ritual Lenten sacrifices and fasting of the Lenten season. Today, Mardi Gras season is a time of merry-making and festivity. Contact Louise Garrett at lovenlove@gmail.com with any questions and to RSVP.

Centering Hymn and Covenant

#30 Fuente de Amor / #123 Spirit of Life

Words and music by Carolyn McDade
Spanish lyrics by Ervin Barrios

Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí.
Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
Sopla al volar, sube en el mar,
Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida.
Arráigame, libérame,
Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Fellowship Covenant

“May love be the spirit of this congregation;
May the quest for truth be its sacrament.

To seek knowledge in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship.
This is our Covenant.”

Blowin' in the Wind by Bob Dylan

How many roads must a man walk down
Before you call him a man?
How many seas must a white dove sail
Before she sleeps in the sand?
Yes, and how many times must the cannonballs fly
Before they're forever banned?

The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind.
The answer is blowin' in the wind.

How many years must a mountain exist
Before it is washed to the sea?
And how many years can some people exist
Before they're allowed to be free?
Yes, and how many times can a man turn his head
Pretending he just doesn't see?

The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind.
The answer is blowin' in the wind.

Yes, and how many times must a man look up
Before he can see the sky?
And how many ears must one man have
Before he can hear people cry?
Yes, and how many deaths will it take 'til he knows
That too many people have died?

The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind.
The answer is blowin' in the wind.
