

2nd Monday Book Club at 6:30pm March 14th

On March 14th we will be discussing the 2016 novel Homegoing by Yaa Gyasi at 6:30pm on the West side of Founders' Hall.

Description of Homegoing: Progressing through 300 years of Ghanaian and American history, the narrative unfolds in a series of concise portraits the progeny of two sisters, Effia and Esi, that capture pivotal moments in each individual's life. Every portrait reads like a short story unto itself, yet Gyasi imbues the work with a remarkably seamless feel. Through the combined historical perspectives of each descendant, the author reveals that racism is often rooted in tribalism, greed, and the lust for power.

Well researched, beautifully told, and easy to read. (From School Library Journal Review)

The Eight Master Lessons of Nature
Monday, March 21st, 4:00-5:30pm

With new insights into the inner workings of nature's wonders, Gary Ferguson presents a fascinating exploration into how many of the most remarkable aspects of nature are hardwired into our very DNA. What emerges is an astounding web of connections that holds powerful clues about how to better navigate our daily lives.

Join the Earth Centered Spirituality Group at UUFSD to discuss Gary Ferguson's book, The Eight Master Lessons of Nature. We will be discussing the introduction and the first two chapters on March 21st from 4 to 5:30 in Founders Hall. Please join us. Everyone is welcome. Please contact Glen Bowden at ggbowden@cox.net for further information.

Centering Hymn and Covenant

#30 Fuente de Amor / #123 Spirit of Life

Words and music by Carolyn McDade
Spanish lyrics by Ervin Barrios

Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí.
Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
Sopla al volar, sube en el mar,
Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida.
Arráigame, libérame,
Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Fellowship Covenant

“May love be the spirit of this congregation;
May the quest for truth be its sacrament.
And service be its prayer;
To dwell together in peace,
To seek knowledge in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship.
This is our Covenant.”
