

Consultant job tasks

- Meet with the Board and congregation on a mutually agreed upon schedule (suggested 4 weekends throughout the year) to complete work on discerning the congregation's values, mission, and ends
- Negotiate with Board and Minister the desired and feasible level of participation by each to maximize success of the process
- Assess governance and functioning of fellowship, including responses to frequent turn over in ministerial staff in the last five years and reactions to constraints due to the pandemic
- Collaborate with the congregation and Board in developing a mission and vision statement and a plan for implementation
- Make recommendations to the Board on how to align fellowship's organizational life with its purposes