“Good Trouble”

Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of San Dieguito

June 12, 2022, 10:00am

Childcare Provided

Unitarian Universalist congregations affirm and promote eight Principles, which we hold as strong values and moral guides. We live out these Principles within a “living tradition” of wisdom and spirituality, drawn from the following Six Sources:

- Direct experience of that transcending mystery and wonder, affirmed in all cultures, which moves us to a renewal of the spirit and an openness to the forces which create and uphold life;*
- Words and deeds of prophetic people which challenge us to confront powers and structures of evil with justice, compassion, and the transforming power of love;*
- Wisdom from the world's religions which inspires us in our ethical and spiritual life;*
- Jewish and Christian teachings which call us to respond to God's love by loving our neighbors as ourselves;*
- Humanist teachings which counsel us to heed the guidance of reason and the results of science, and warn us against idolatries of the mind and spirit;*
- Spiritual teachings of Earth-centered traditions which celebrate the sacred circle of life and instruct us to live in harmony with the rhythms of nature.*

CENTERING HYMN AND COVENANT

#30 FUENTE DE AMOR/#123 SPIRIT OF LIFE

Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí.
Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
Sopla al volar, sube en el mar,
Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida.
Arráigame, libérame,
Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

FELLOWSHIP COVENANT

"May love be the spirit of this congregation;
May the quest for truth be its sacrament.
And service be its prayer;
To dwell together in peace,
To seek knowledge in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship.
This is our Covenant."

"LIBERTAD (LIBERTY)" by Gildardo Suárez Bernal

2nd Monday Book Club, June 13th, 6:30 - 8:15pm in Palmer Library

Let's take a break from the day's bleak news, to read the 2021 novel Better Luck Next Time by Julia Claiborne Johnson: In the 1930s, a quickie divorce for wealthy women meant spending 6 weeks in Nevada, often on a dude ranch in Reno. This is a funny take on friendship, love, and how the family we create (after we know better) can be stronger than the family we come from.

We will be discussing this 2021 novel at 6:30pm in the Library at UUFSD on Monday, June 13th. Email bookclub@uufsd.org or call/text Cathy Leach-Phillips at 650 224-1974 if you have questions.

Zoom Viewing Party & Discussion on Confronting Anti-Indigenous Racism & Colonialism in California
June 25th, 4:00-6:30pm

During our Zoom Viewing Party, we will screen a recorded presentation from the Director of the California Indian Culture and Sovereignty Center, and Cal State University San Marcos Chair of American Indian Studies, Dr. Joely Proudfit, Ph.D. She, along with several Native American activists, will be teaching the actual history of California Indian Peoples (often hidden and omitted from the national narratives), and making visible what anti-Indigenous racism & colonialism look and sound like. We will also be offered solutions: ways to combat anti-Indigenous racism by recognizing ways to shift away from settler colonial mindset and behavior.

It's a critical part of breaking with colonial conditioning to listen to Indigenous voices speaking from American Indian perspectives...

Contact Sarah at sarahlockwoodmiller@gmail.com for registration information.

Libertad (Liberty)

"Liberty is more than waking up unchained. It is living in harmony with our neighbors, deciding together, working together for the freedom of all."

Good Trouble

"Our faith has challenged us to make good trouble, to make this world a better place. When the world seems lost and torn, more than we can bear, we find strength to carry on, turning from despair.

We shall never be afraid, fear and lies will cease, as we struggle day by day, we seek love and peace.

Marching forth and bound with love, walk this way of life, joined together, we have come to banish hate and strife.

Make some noise and spread the word: change in on the way. Hope is here, we're challenged now, night has turned to day!"

If the War Goes On

*"If the war goes on
and the children die of hunger, and the old men weep
for the young men are no more,
and the women learn how to dance without a partner who will keep the score?"*

*If the war goes on
and the truth is taken hostage;
and new terrors lead
to the need to euphemise,
when the calls for peace
are declared unpatriotic, who'll expose the lies?"*

*If the war goes on
and the daily bread is terror, and the voiceless poor
take the road as refugees;
when a nation's pride
destines millions to be homeless, who will heed their pleas?"*

*If the war goes on
and the rich increase their fortunes and the arms sales soar
as new weapons are displayed, when a fertile field
turns to no-man's-land tomorrow, who'll approve such trade?"*

*If the war goes on will we close the doors to heaven?
if the war goes on,
will we breach the gates of hell?
if the war goes on,
will we ever be forgiven?
if the war goes on*

Say Her Name

"Say her name, She cannot be forgotten by us.

Say her name.

Put her name in the air.

Sandra Bland; Breonna Taylor; Michelle Cusseaux; Redka Boyd; Latasha Walton"

Soon

*"It's not for me that I'm worried. 'Cause I am twelve, I see more.
But the little ones, the very little ones, that's who I worry for.
It's not for me that I smile. I'm always scared; They're scared more.
It's the little ones, the very little ones, that's who I smile for.
And every night my sisters ask me, When will Mommy come to pick us up?
And every night I don't have an answer. What should I do?
I tell them: Soon. Mommy's coming soon.*

*One little girl in my room here, she's only six, Nothing more.
She doesn't know the name of where she came here from, or what she came here for.
And every night this little girl asks me, when will Daddy come to pick me up?
And every night I don't have an answer. When can I do?
I have to lie. I tell her: Soon. Daddy's coming soon.
I want to leave, with my sisters. I want to leave, right this minute. I want to leave."*

Make Them Hear You

*Go out and tell our story.
Let it echo far and wide.
Make them hear you.*

*How Justice was our battle
And how Justice was denied.
Make them hear you.*

*And say to those who blame us
For the way we chose to fight,
That sometimes there are battles
That are more than black or white.*

*And I could not put down my sword
When Justice was my right.
Make them hear you.*

*Go out and tell our story to your daughters and your sons.
Make them hear you.*

*And tell them, "In our struggle,
We were not the only ones".
Make them hear you.*

*Your sword could be a sermon
Or the power of the pen.
Teach every child to raise his voice
And then my brothers, then
Will justice be demanded by ten million righteous men.*

Make them hear you. When they hear you. I'll be near you again!"

Still I Rise

*'Though I have been wounded, aching heart full of pain. Still I rise.
Jus' like a budding rose, my bloom is nourished by rain.
Haven't time to wonder why, though fearful I strive.
My pray'r and faith uphold me 'til my courage arrives.*

*Still I rise as an eagle, soaring above ev'ry fear.
With each day I succeed, I grow strong an' believe
That it's all within my reach; I'm reaching for the skies,
Bolstered by courage, yes, still I rise.
Yes, it's all within my reach; I'm reaching for the skies,
Yes, still I rise.*

*As my heart grows heavy, and my confidence dies, still I rise.
Pure strength is in my tears and healing rains in my cries.
Plunging depths of anguish, I determine to strive.
My prayer and faith uphold me 'til my courage arrives.
Though you see me slump with heartache; Heart so heavy that it breaks.
Be not deceived I fly on bird's wings, rising sun, its healing rays.
Look at me, I'm getting stronger, I'm determined to survive.
Tho' I get tired and I get weary, I won't give up. I'm still alive.*

*Yes, still I rise as an eagle, soaring above every fear.
With each day I succeed, I grow strong and believe that it's all within my reach.
I'm reaching for the skies, bolstered by courage,
Yes, still I rise, higher and higher, yes, still I rise!"*
