Unitarian Universalist congregations affirm and promote eight Principles, which we hold as strong values and moral guides.

We live out these Principles within a "living tradition" of wisdom and spirituality, drawn from sources as diverse as science, poetry, scripture, and personal experience.

1) The inherent worth and dignity of every person;

2) Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;

3) Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;

4) A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;

5) The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;

6) The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;

7) Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part;

8) Journeying toward spiritual wholeness by working to build a diverse and multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and other oppressions in ourselves and our institutions.

> Words and music by Carolyn McDade, Spanish lyrics by Ervin Barrios
>
> Spirit of Life, come unto me.
> Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
> Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
> Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
> Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
> Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.
>
> Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí.
> Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
> Sopla al volar, sube en el mar,
> Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida.
> Arráigame, libérame,
> Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.
