

Unitarian Universalist congregations affirm and promote eight Principles, which we hold as strong values and moral guides.

We live out these Principles within a “living tradition” of wisdom and spirituality, drawn from sources as diverse as science, poetry, scripture, and personal experience.

- 1) The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- 2) Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- 3) Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- 4) A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- 5) The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- 6) The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- 7) Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part;
- 8) Journeying toward spiritual wholeness by working to build a diverse and multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and other oppressions in ourselves and our institutions.

Centering Hymn and Covenant #123 “Spirit of Life” / #31 “Fuente de Amor” Words and music by Carolyn McDade, Spanish lyrics by Ervin Barrios Spirit of Life, come unto me. Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion. Blow in the wind, rise in the sea; Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice. Roots hold me close; wings set me free; Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me. Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí. Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión. Sopla al volar, sube en el mar, Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida. Arráigame, libérame, Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.		Extinguishing the Chalice “We extinguish this flame but not the light of truth, the warmth of community, or the fire of commitment. These we carry in our hearts until we are together again.”
Fellowship Covenant “May love be the spirit of this congregation; May the quest for truth be its sacrament. And service be its prayer; To dwell together in peace, To seek knowledge in freedom, And to help one another in fellowship. This is our Covenant.”		Benediction
Joys and Sorrows		Postlude	Katie Klaerich
