

Unitarian Universalist congregations affirm and promote eight Principles, which we hold as strong values and moral guides.

- 1) The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- 2) Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- 3) Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- 4) A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- 5) The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- 6) The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- 7) Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part;
- 8) Journeying toward spiritual wholeness by working to build a diverse and multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and other oppressions in ourselves and our institutions.

Centering Hymn and Covenant
#123 "Spirit of Life" / #31 "Fuente de Amor"
Words and Music by Carolyn McDade, Spanish lyrics by Ervin Barrios

Spirit of Life, come unto me;
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí. Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
Sopla al volar, sube en el mar, Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida.
Arrágame, libérame, Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.

Free to Be You and Me

Music by Stephen J. Lawrence; Lyrics by Bruce Hart

There's a land that I see where the children are free
And I say it ain't far to this land from where we are
Take my hand, come with me where the children are free
Come with me, take my hand, and we'll live ...

In a land where the river runs free
In a land through the green country
In a land to a shining sea
And you and me are free to be you and me

I see a land bright and clear and the time's comin' near
When we'll live in this land you and me, hand in hand
Take my hand, come along. Lend your voice to my song.
Come along, take my hand, sing a song...

For a land where the river runs free
For a land through the green country
For a land to a shining sea
For a land where the horses run free
And you and me are free to be you and me

Every boy in this land grows to be his own man
In this land, every girl grows to be her own woman
Take my hand, come with me where the children are free
Come with me, take my hand, and we'll run ...

To a land where the river runs free
To a land through the green country
To a land to a shining sea
To a land where the horses run free
To a land where the children are free

And you and me are free to be
And you and me are free to be
And you and me are free to be you and me
